TEASER

INT. MEETING ROOM - NIGHT

ECU on the orange glint of a CHIMERA HELM's VISOR seen hovering in shadow.

RED

You know, you bloodsuckers don't have much common sense, but you've got excellent taste in clothes.

WIDE SHOT. The wearer of the helmet steps into the light, revealing a dark red suit of armor. He holds a rifle in one hand and a bloody sword in another. This is the RED IMMORTAL.

We PAN OUT further to see that the bodies of several dead vampires all wearing dress suits, all dismembered are strewn about the room.

ANGLE ON a beautiful lone vampire, JADE (female, looks 30, green eyes), is slumped against the wall in a corner clutching a bloody shoulder. She's a cornered rat.

JADE

You know you will die for this. Bringing a war to the Lunaris Coven, you're only digging your own grave.

RED

Yeah... War is exactly how this is supposed to begin. But I've already died once, baby. In fact, I'm an immortal.

He strikes her down with one stroke of the sword.

RED (CONT'D)

And the law of the jungle calls for the survival of the fittest.

EXT. NEONA - NIGHT

Red is now outside of the seemingly derelict city. He is carrying a lumpy, bloody sack.

A short BEEP is heard from the helmet. Red touches one hand to his helmet.

I'm done here. I've got the message we need ready. And I will be moving to collect the next item on the list in the morning..

Red walks forward filling the shot.

ACT ONE

EXT. OMNI CITY STREET - DAY

ECU on a single orange eye. PULL BACK to reveal the full body of a JAEGER DRONE flying in the air over the city streets

A ROAR is heard OFF SCREEN. The Jaeger drone flies down to the street to investigate.

An enraged SIMIAN pounds his chest with one fist, holding a small trinket in the other. A lone LYCAN lies at the simian's feet, struggling to get to his feet. A small crowd of onlookers backs away.

SIMIAN

You insult me and try to steal from me? I should snap your neck!

The Jaeger drone swoops past the simians head, releasing a SONIC WAVE. The simian swats at the drone in irritation, but misses.

The crowd makes way for a trio of Chimeras to enter the scene.

Leading them is LORELEI (female, 23, blue-eyed, blonde-haired bombshell), followed by ROMAN (male, 23, brown skinned, athletic build in human form), and JALEN (male, 24, handsome, fair-skinned, white-gold wings, limiter cuffs on wrists).

Lorelei is the only one in Chimera armor with the exception of her helmet, while Jalen and Roman are dressed in lighter, form-fitting armor meant to allow them to use their abilities.

LORELEI

Please, calm down, sir.

The simian eyes the Chimeras for one moment. He grins.

SIMIAN

You're in no position to tell me what to do!

JALEN

Actually we are. We're Chimeras, the united peacekeepers of the Alliance. Stand down or we will have to use force.

ROMAN

Why lay it on so thick, Jalen? It's not our first day on the job. Let Lorelei lead it.

JALEN

Shut up, Roman. I'm trying to establish our authority as we are trained to do.

LORELEI

Let's keep it together and remain professional for once here, boys.

Lorelei turns back to the simian who now looks confused and more frustrated.

LORELEI (CONT'D)

I apologize for my colleagues... Could you please allow us to deescalate whatever your situation may be? We do not desire any further confrontations.

The simian sighs, rolls his eyes. He points to the downed lycan while holding out the trinket to Lorelei.

SIMIAN

This fleabag tried to snatch the toy I bought with my own credits for my daughter! Then tried to tell me she would probably be too stupid to use it.

The lycan stirs and manages to get to his feet and leap onto the simian's back, locking his jaws on the ape's shoulder. The simian ROARS in pain reaching back for the wolf, to pull him off.

LORELEI

Separate them!

Lorelei raises her left arm. A small SONIC PULSE EMITTER POPS out. She fires it near the simian's head, catching the lycan as well. The simian covers his ears while the lycan looses his bite and falls to his feet. Jalen flies over the simian and releases a bolt of electricity into the lycan to stun him and knock him unconscious.

The simian, now enraged again, charges Roman and Lorelei. The two of them nimbly dodge. Roman rolls, bristling with silver hair beginning the transformation to his lycan form.

ROMAN

I won't pretend I wasn't looking for some action today, but I will try not to hurt him too badly.

Roman launches himself at the simian, who backhands him lightly. Roman backflips, recovers and springs at the back of the simian's legs, delivering a one-two punch combo into the back of his knees.

Lorelei uses the energy shield on her gauntlet to deflect the next swing of the giant's fist. She then responds by launching three darts from her gauntlets into his neck.

Jalen fires a short stream of electricity into the simian's back.

The simian convulses for one second, attempts to stand, but soon collapses and falls unconscious.

ROMAN

We already know simians are resistant to heat and electricity, but that shock was kind of excessive.

JALEN

The wolf with a history of anger issues is lecturing me on excessive force.

LORELEI

Enough you two... But good job.
